

The following PDF form should be used for transmitting Contribution Deposits.

A separate form should be submitted for each type of deposit (e.g. contribution, contribution with benefits received).

This PDF form is a FILL-IN form that can be used either with Adobe Reader or with Adobe Professional.

If you open the PDF form with Adobe Reader, you will be able to save the blank form for future use, fill-in requested data, print the form, and save the form with filled in data.

You can save the commonly used data (i.e. fund #, fund name, contact information) as a template in order to streamline the preparation of transmittal forms.

If you have access to Adobe Professional, you can customize the form for your college with a drop-down box listing the most used Fund numbers and Fund names.
