

If you are having problems opening some PDF forms that are available on the ksufoundation.org website and get the "Please wait" error below, the quick fix is just to click Download when you see this message and save the document to your computer. The problem is just with the previewer screen of the document. If you don't want to do this every time you can follow the instructions below to allow your browser to automatically download documents from the site.

Please wait...

If this message is not eventually replaced by the proper contents of the document, your PDF viewer may not be able to display this type of document.
